

Fabio Gallia

Chief Executive Officer and General Manager of BNL, member of the Executive Committee of BNP Paribas Group.

He joined BNP Paribas Group in October 2007 and was appointed General Manager in January 2008.

Born in Alessandria (Italia) on August 20, 1963. Degree in Economics at Turin University. Married with 2 children.

Former professional experience:

2002 – 2007: Capitalia Group - in 2002 appointed Deputy General Manager of Capitalia SpA, responsible, as CFO, for Integrated Finance of the Group and for Wealth Management. In July 2003 appointed Joint General Manager of Capitalia and entrusted with the additional responsibility for the commercial policy of the Group. In September 2003 appointed Chief Executive Officer of Fineco, listed bank on the Milan Stock Exchange till December 2005, when it merged into Capitalia. In August 2005 appointed Chief Executive Officer of Banca di Roma and Chairman of the Management Committee of Capitalia Group.

1990 – 2002: Ersel-Giubergia Group – Investment Manager since 1996 and General Manager of Ersel Asset Management SGR since 1999.

1988 – 1990: experience with Accenture and in the field of consultancy

He is a chartered professional accountant.

He has held the additional following positions:

- Deputy Chairman and Board Member of Capitalia Asset Management SGR
- Board Member and Chairman of Internal Control Committee of CNP Capitalia Assicurazioni Vita
- Board Member of Borsa Italiana
- Board Member of MTS
- Member of the Managing Committee of Assogestioni